

Dear Sir Graeme,

With the planned combined closure of the obstetric led units at Eastbourne and Haywards Heath, more than 4,000 mothers in Central Sussex will be at least 30 minutes from their nearest obstetric consultant unit.

This cannot be right. Numerous statistics and experience in other regions support the provision of a Consultant led Maternity Unit in an area the size of Central Sussex (Crawley, Horsham, Haywards Heath & Uckfield).

How many more babies have to be born on the roadside, before services are restored?
